TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY

Barre People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Barre testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Barre who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Last any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Barre people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent.

Here's a Barre case:
Mrs. N. M. Nelson, 18 West street, Barre, Vt., says: "I have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I recommended them over eleven years ago. At that time I was suffering from kidney trouble, brought on by an attack of grip. I steadily grew worse and the lightest housework tired me. If I were on my feet for an hour or so, sharp pains across my back compelled me to sit down. Then other symptoms of kidney trouble set in and I was really in a bad way. I paid over one hundred dollars for doctors' prescriptions and medicines, but as I found no relief, I became discouraged. One day my husband brought home a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and told me to try them. A few doses brought the best of results and I continued taking the remedy until entirely relieved. My children have also taken this preparation with splendid results, and I advise other kidney sufferers to give it a trial."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Death of Charles R. Benedict and His Funeral Sunday.

The long illness of Charles R. Benedict came to an end in his death last Friday evening. He was buried from his home last Sunday afternoon and in our village cemetery. He was born here March 12, 1837, the third son of the late Squire and Della Reed Benedict, and his long life has been lived chiefly in this place.

In 1864 he married Nancy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Seaver, and five children were born by this marriage, all but one of whom are yet living. His first wife having died in the fall of 1900, three years later he married Mrs. Betsey Hatch Hayward, widow of the late Levi Hayward, who survives him. Reared in work on a farm, Mr. Benedict continued in farm life till he was greatly handled physically by rheumatism, and he sought other work that he could do more easily, and so for years he ran a stage to Barre—all the coming of our railroad, we think. He was a popular man in his stage work, his honesty and his accommodating disposition having made him trusted by all and given him many friends. He never sought public life and his one office as constable at one time, we think, was the principal, if not the only office he had held. For some years past he had looked like a feeble man, but heart disease and tuberculosis of the blood within a year or two past laid him aside from very active continuous hard work. Some months ago he felt assured that his work was about done. He took to his bed not many weeks ago and his decline was a quite rapid. His last days were greatly cheered by the presence of his two daughters from southern California, while a third daughter and son in Burlington were near at hand. He is said to have borne his last sickness with great patience, ready to go or stay, as Providence might order. He had been a member of the Methodist church here for years, and his pastor, Rev. Mr. Roberts, paid him warm tribute at his funeral. The surviving members of his family desire to thank neighbors and friends for all the kindness shown in the death and burial of husband and father. As neighbor and townsman he will be missed here.

Mrs. Thomas D. Poland has visited friends in Moretown lately.

Mrs. John Warner has been visiting

A Good Baker may make Friends in Massachusetts for some weeks past.

Mrs. B. F. Sibley went to Boston on Monday last to be with her daughter, Ella, through the winter.

Mrs. Erskine Russell will have her millinery opening on Saturday afternoon of this week. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

Leon McAllister, having finished a course of study at the Montpelier seminary, has just taken work in the new market here.

Mrs. Norman G. Davis is about to leave Illinois and go to Wichita, Kansas, for the winter, to be in the family of her brother, Luther Newcomb, who is in business there.

Mrs. Thomas C. Waldo decides to sell the farm on the East side of our town, belonging to the estate of her late husband. There is said to be a quantity of valuable timber on the place.

Mrs. Amelia House Graves, a daughter of Henry C. House, came a few days ago from her home in Colorado Springs, Col., for a month's visit with her parents, and other family friends here.

Maynard F. Spencer's young son played very nicely on the violin at the service at the Congregational church last Sunday morning. We judge that he has not an equal here in that kind of music.

Herbert Townsend of Plattsburg, N.
Y., and the only son of Daniel C. Townsend, is in town, accompanied by his wife and baby boy. Mr. Townsend works in an automobile factory in Plattsburg.

Miss A. Baker, a sister of our town clerk and a resident of Boston, Mass., went to Richmond on Monday for a short visit with the Kimball sisters and then will return to Boston. She is one of the pleasantest of our summer visitors.

Joe Daley, an employee in the Ervin H.
Martin & Son meat market, is carrying a sore hand, which started with cutting it with a knife while working in the slaughter house. A cold was taken in the wound and blood poisoning has been feared.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Home Study club will be on Saturday afternoon of next week with Miss Annette E. Edson. The program for the meeting will be "Current English Trends: England, chapters 2 and 3," and a paper on "English Public Affairs of To-day," by Mrs. Bernice Sibley Young.

At a recent M. E. sociable at the home of Mrs. Oliver Dickinson, there was a guessing contest as to the number of butternuts on a certain tree on the premises, the winner in the contest to be rewarded with an invitation to a butternut cracking. The tree proved later to have six and a half bushels of nuts. Mrs. D.
B. Sander's guess was seven bushels, as also was the guess of Miss Boyce. Mrs.
Theodore Williams guessed six bushels.

Our place has been greatly indebted in late years to our Village Improvement society, made up of women. This society is now endeavoring to supply the place with a course of good entertainments the coming season. As a matter of course, this can be done only by a cordial co-operation of our citizens; and this surely will not be lacking now.

At a recent choice of officers for this society, Mrs. Thomas D. Poland was made president, Miss Myrtle Seaver treasurer, and Miss Mabel Wheatley, secretary.

and has contracted the job of making the repairs to Messrs. C. N. Dearborn and C. A. Bacon, who have already commenced, and hope to have the house ready for occupancy before winter.

Miss May Helmer, Masters George and William Helmer, and Bessie Burgess, who have spent the past two months at W. F.
Hood's, left Wednesday morning for ing the trip by Dr. Helmer's automobile, driven by his chauffeur, Charles Stroebel.

The party were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hood, who will spend several weeks in New York before their return.

The opening entertainment of the lecture course, given by the Commonwealth Ladies' orchestra of Boston, Saturday evening, was fairly well attended and was conceded to be the best entertainment for music lovers ever given in town.

Every member of the orchestra was a distinct artist and the violin solo played by Mr. Lewis, the director and only gentleman associated with the company, was alone well worth the price of admission. Should they ever visit Chelsea again
